Alex Mercer stumbles around New York. He is stronger & faster than other humans, and has the ability to shape shift. The problem is he has no memory of how this happened to him, why the military is after him, and what caused the mystery illness that is rapidly spreading throughout the population; but he is sure that they are all linked. Slowly memories start to come back as he finds people from his past, gathers information, destroys mutant creatures, and consumes military officials. His path leads him to Gentek and a horrible truth they are keeping secret.
