

A recent alumna of the prestigious Berklee College of Music in Boston, Chelsea Dash has been entertaining audiences with her stunning, four octave, power house voice from a very early age. She made her musical debut at a preschool "Show and Tell" with a lively rendition of Madonna's "Like A Virgin" - shocking peers and teachers alike, and nearly leading to her expulsion. She has since performed at the White House for their Christmas Party, as well as prestigious venues including the Staples Center, Madison Square Garden, and more. Check out the lyric video for her latest release, "Massive Attack."
