Mummies, magic, and the O'Connell family go hand in hand so when a thousand year old Emperor from China is awakened and sets forth his plan to rule the Earth; it's just another day. At one point, Emperor Han (Jet Li) was the greatest ruler in all of China. He had defeated every opponent except for one, death. Determined to find the secrets of immortality, he seeks out a witch who can help him, only to have a curse befall him and trap him in stone. Now, thousands of years later, his tomb has been opened and the curse has been lifted. The only people who can stop the path of destruction by Han are Rick O'Connell (Brendan Fraser), his wife Evelyn (Maria Bello) and now grown up son Alex (Luke Ford). Together, the family will be forced out of retirement for one last battle of the dead and, with the help of some friends along the way, save the world again.
